Itinerary:

Day 1	Reykjavik – Welcome & Acclimatization	• Settle into your hotel in Reykjavik and meet fellow travellers over a friendly group icebreaker. • Enjoy a relaxing evening with a sumptuous Indian dinner. • Embark on an evening trip to see the Aurora Borealis. Hear fascinating facts about them from your guides, and search to see the lights firsthand. Depart the bright lights of Reykjavík city centre to see the dancing lights of the Aurora Borealis. Also known as the “Northern Lights,” it is one of the most spectacular shows during winter months. • Overnight in Reykjavik

Day 2	Golden Circle Adventure.	• Discover the extraordinary sights and natural wonders of Iceland’s geothermal Geysir area, and see active geysers and cascading waterfalls along the way. The tour starts at Geysir where you can see spouting hot springs, including the most active geyser in Iceland Strokkur. Continue across the torrid landscape to Gullfoss, where you can stand next to an amazing waterfall as enormous quantities of water tumble violently into a deep, meandering gorge. Spend some time exploring a cross-section of Iceland's natural wonders and geological phenomena at Thingvellir National Park, an area of such historic and geological significance it was inscribed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2004. Learn about the open-air assembly of Althing and how the landscape was husbanded over 1,000 years. See the dramatic fissures and rifts in the landscape caused by dramatic volcanic activity throughout history. • Indian Dinner & Overnight in Reykjavik

Day 3	South Iceland.	Spend the day exploring the dramatic landscapes of the south of Iceland along with its coastline on a full-day sightseeing tour from Reykjavik. Along the way, discover a variety of rivers, waterfalls, mountains, and glaciers. Following a pickup from listed hotels or guesthouses by bus in central Reykjavík, travel to the gorgeous waterfalls of Seljalandsfoss and Skógafoss. At the waterfall at Seljalandsfoss, walk behind the cascades and feel the spray on your face. Continue to Skógafoss to marvel at the 60-meter drop. Pass the black sand beaches of the southern coast and enjoy the power of the sea. Visit the glacier snout of Sólheimajökull to see an outlet glacier of Mýrdalsjökull. Admire the ever-changing feat of nature up-close. Then, look at the basalt sea stacks at, Iceland’s southernmost village just south of the Mýrdalsjökull glacier. Return to Reykjavik. Indian Dinner and overnight in Reykjavik.

Day 4	Whale Watching & Blue Lagoon.	After Breakfast, Proceed for Whale Watching Tour. Take a boat trip from Reykjavik's harbor to discover Iceland's rich marine life, which is one of this island country's highlights. All year round you can spot a variety of whales and other marine animals in the Reykjavik area, including minke and humpback whales, harbor porpoises, and whale-beaked dolphins. Later in the Afternoon proceed for Blue Lagoon tour. Experience the tranquility of the unique Geothermal Milky Blue Sea waters, considered by many to be a once-in-a-lifetime experience and an unmissable part of your Iceland Holiday. There are frequent departures to and from Reykjavik allowing you to explore on your own time. The Blue Lagoon was formed in 1976 during an operation at the nearby geothermal power plant. In the years that followed, people began to bathe in the water and apply the silica mud to their skin. It's known for its restorative qualities and health benefits. The Blue Lagoon is surrounded by a mossy lava field, offering incredible scenery, with state-of-the-art facilities and an other-worldly atmosphere. Indian Dinner and Overnight in Reykjavik.

Day 5	Reykjavik City tour, Lava Show and Lava Tunnel Visit.	• After Breakfast proceed for a local city tour of Reykjavik. • The guide will take you through various streets of Reykjavík, passing by important buildings of great architecture, and will detail their history as you walk by. You'll get a great introduction to Iceland's history and culture. See the Harpa Concert Hall, beautiful on the inside, which also serves well as a warm stop on cold days which are frequent in Iceland. Continue the walk along the oceanfront before eventually moving to the oldest part where the parliament and city hall is located. We finish the walking tour by the Parliament building in the main square. Later Visit the LAVA SHOW - The only live lava show in the world that has become one of the must-see experiences in Iceland! It is a family friendly indoor experience where you get the unique opportunity to get up close to real molten lava in a safe and controlled environment, learn everything there is to learn about Icelandic geology and volcanism and understand the powers that lie beneath the land of ice and fire. Later in the Afternoon, Proceed to the Outskirts of Reykjavik to visit a LAVA Tunnel - it's a perfect example of an Icelandic lava tube, providing a truly unique experience as you explore the dark and mysterious underworld. During your adventure, see curious rock formations left behind by the last volcanic eruption. In winter the cave is often filled with glistening icicles of all shapes and sizes, a sight not soon forgotten. After you have been equipped with all necessary caving gear, crawl beneath the surface of the earth

Day 6	Departure –Perlan Museum- Farewell Iceland.	• Breakfast and check-out. • Later Proceed to Perlan Museum • Stand inside a real ice cave, immerse yourself in interactive exhibits, witness the Northern Lights, and feel volcanic power. Each display tells a story about our connection to nature, inspiring a deeper appreciation for the world we share. The combination of cutting-edge technology and interactive experiences, along with captivating information and stories, makes the exhibitions unique, enjoyable, and educational at the same time. As one of Iceland's most recognizable landmarks and home to an award-winning museum, Perlan is a must-visit destination. • Packed Indian Lunch • Transfer to the airport for your flight to Frankfurt, taking cherished memories with you. Board your flight to Frankfurt at 1520 and arrive Frankfurt at 0755 pm. Overnight in Airport Hotel in Frankfurt.

Day 7	Departure.	Transfer to the Airport to take your flight back home.
