Tokyo

After Breakfast, Start your day to make the most of Tokyo's vibrant sights. Visit Hie Shrine - Begin your Tokyo adventure with a peaceful visit to Hie Shrine. This Shinto shrine, located in Akasaka, is known for its striking red torii gates and tranquil surroundings. Take some time to explore the shrine's unique architecture and lush greenery. Don't forget to walk through the famous torii gate pathway, which makes for stunning photos! Later, Head towards the Rainbow Bridge, which connects central Tokyo with the Odaiba area. From your transportation, you'll get excellent window views of this impressive bridge spanning Tokyo Bay. Stop by Odaiba's own Statue of Liberty replica for a memorable photo opportunity. The scenic waterfront location offers a unique blend of Tokyo's urban landscape and Parisian charm, with Tokyo Tower and the Rainbow Bridge in the background. This is a popular photo spot, so take your time to capture a great shot! After Lunch, Visit TeamLab Planets Tokyo - Immerse yourself in the captivating, interactive digital art world of TeamLab Planets. This immersive art experience involves walking through water, exploring mirrored rooms, and interacting with dynamic digital displays. Allow yourself about 1.5 to 2 hours to explore the exhibitions, as each one offers a different sensory experience. Head over to Tokyo Sky Tree, Japan's tallest structure, standing at 634 meters. You'll ascend to the Tembo Deck at 349 meters, which provides breathtaking 360-degree views of Tokyo. On clear days, you might even glimpse Mount Fuji. Explore the observation areas, enjoy the view, and take in Tokyo's vast urban landscape stretching out in all directions. The experience typically takes about an hour. Conclude your day at the iconic Shibuya Scramble Crossing. As one of Tokyo's busiest intersections, this spot epitomizes the city's energy. Join the waves of pedestrians crossing in multiple directions, and take in the flashing lights, giant video screens, and bustling atmosphere. Indian Dinner and Overnight in Tokyo.

Tokyo

After Breakfast, Transfer to Umi Hotaru through Aqua Line. Start your day with a unique experience traveling through the Aqua Line, an underwater highway that connects Tokyo to the Chiba area. The highlight is Umi Hotaru, an artificial island and rest area in the middle of Tokyo Bay. You'll have a chance to enjoy the scenic views of the bay, shop for local souvenirs, and take in panoramic views from this unique spot. Continue to the Hikawamaru, a historic ocean liner moored at Yamashita Park in Yokohama. This retired luxury liner, with an Art Deco interior, now serves as a museum showcasing its rich history and its role during World War II. Explore the ship's elegant rooms, crew quarters, and engine rooms. This is a fascinating step back in time, perfect for history buffs and maritime enthusiasts. Return to Tokyo and head for Lunch. Kimono Experience- Head to a kimono rental shop for an authentic cultural experience. Choose a beautiful kimono and have the professionals assist you with traditional dressing, complete with accessories. Once dressed, you're ready to explore Tokyo with a unique flair! Visit Sensou-ji Temple, Tokyo's oldest and most significant Buddhist temple in Asakusa. Walk through the grand Kaminarimon Gate, featuring its famous red lantern, and proceed to the temple's main hall. Take part in local customs like lighting incense, making offerings, and receiving omikuji (fortune slips). Capture photos of this serene and vibrant temple area, which is rich in history and tradition. Adjacent to Sensou-ji Temple, Nakamise Street is one of Tokyo's oldest shopping streets. Here, you can find a variety of traditional Japanese snacks, souvenirs, and handicrafts. It's the perfect place to pick up small mementos of your trip, try local street foods like ningyo-yaki. Finish your day in Ginza, Tokyo's upscale shopping district known for luxury boutiques, department stores, and fine dining. Here, you'll have free time to explore the district at your own pace. Check out Ginza's designer flagship stores, or relax in one of its chic cafes. This area also features several art galleries and the famous Ginza Wako Clock Tower, which is worth a photo. Indian Dinner and Overnight in Tokyo.

Mount Fuji

Begin your journey to Hakone, a popular area known for its natural beauty, hot springs, and views of Mt. Fuji. The drive or train ride from Tokyo to Hakone typically takes about 1.5 to 2 hours, so relax and enjoy the scenic journey. Arrive at Lake Ashi, where you'll embark on a cruise across this serene, crater-formed lake. Known for its scenic views of Mt. Fuji on clear days, the lake offers a tranquil way to experience Hakone's natural beauty. The cruise typically takes around 30 minutes, and you'll glide by sights like the Hakone Shrine torii gate, which rises dramatically from the lake's edge, creating an unforgettable backdrop. Hakone Ropeway (Tougendai to Owakudani) - Disembark from the Lake Ashi cruise at Tougendai Station and transfer to the Hakone Ropeway, which offers panoramic views as it ascends towards Owakudani. The ride takes approximately 16 minutes, with stunning vistas of Mt. Fuji, surrounding mountains, and the active volcanic valley of Owakudani. At Owakudani, take some time to explore and enjoy the geothermal activity, including bubbling hot springs and sulfur vents. After exploring Owakudani, enjoy lunch at one of the nearby restaurants. Options include traditional Japanese cuisine, such as soba noodles or tempura, with some restaurants offering views of Mt. Fuji. Take this time to relax and recharge before heading to the next highlight of your day. Continue your journey to the Mt. Fuji area, where you'll tour some of the iconic viewing points of Japan's tallest and most sacred mountain. If possible, your guide may take you to the Mt. Fuji 5th Station, located halfway up the mountain. Here, you'll have the chance to enjoy spectacular views, visit the small shrine dedicated to the mountain, and explore the souvenir shops. If weather or access to the 5th Station is limited, other viewing spots in the nearby area offer impressive perspectives on Mt. Fuji's majestic peak. Dinner and Overnight in Shizuka. Begin your day by arranging for your suitcase to be sent to Osaka. Many hotels in Japan offer a convenient luggage forwarding service, also known as takuhaibin, which allows for smooth travel without heavy bags. This will enable you to travel light as you make your way to Hiroshima. Bullet Train from Mishima to Hiroshima (Transfer at Nagoya Station) Lunch Upon Arrival.

Begin your day by arranging for your suitcase to be sent to Osaka. Many hotels in Japan offer a convenient luggage forwarding service, also known as takuhaibin, which allows for smooth travel without heavy bags. This will enable you to travel light as you make your way to Hiroshima. Bullet Train from Mishima to Hiroshima (Transfer at Nagoya Station) Lunch Upon Arrival. Ferry to Miyajima Island - From Hiroshima Station, make your way to Miyajima-guchi (via train or tram) and take the ferry to Miyajima Island. The ferry ride lasts about 10 minutes and offers stunning views of the iconic torii gate of Itsukushima Shrine as you approach the island. This is a perfect opportunity for photos, as the gate appears to float on the water during high tide. Upon arriving on Miyajima Island, head to Itsukushima Shrine, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This Shinto shrine, famous for its “floating” torii gate, is built over water and appears to float during high tide. Take time to explore the shrine's architecture and learn about its spiritual significance. Enjoy a stroll along the temple grounds and, if the tide is low, walk up to the base of the torii gate for close- up views. Indian Dinner and Overnight in Hiroshima.

Hiroshima - Osaka

Start your day with an early departure to make the most of your time at the historic sites in Hiroshima before moving on to Himeji. Begin your morning with a visit to the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum, located in the Peace Memorial Park. This impactful museum documents the events of the atomic bombing in 1945, with exhibits that include artifacts, photographs, and stories of survivors. Take your time exploring the museum's exhibits to gain insight into the tragedy and its lasting effects. Afterward, walk over to the nearby Atomic Bomb Dome, one of the few structures that remained standing after the explosion. It has been preserved as a symbol of peace and a reminder of the city's resilience. The site is deeply moving, so take a moment to reflect while exploring the park. After Lunch, Arrive at Himeji Castle, one of Japan's most iconic and best-preserved castles. A UNESCO World Heritage site, Himeji Castle is known for its stunning white facade and intricate architectural design. Explore the grounds and the castle's main keep, where you'll learn about its history and enjoy panoramic views from the upper levels. As you walk through, admire the architectural marvels, including defensive systems like the maze-like layout and stone walls. Take time to stroll through the surrounding garden and appreciate the picturesque beauty of this castle, often called the "White Heron Castle" for its graceful appearance. Indian Dinner and Overnight in Osaka.

Kyoto

After Breakfast, head to Kyoto for a day filled with cultural and scenic experiences. Begin your Kyoto experience with a traditional Japanese tea ceremony, a practice rooted in Zen Buddhism. During the ceremony, a tea master will guide you through the steps of making and appreciating matcha (green tea) in a serene setting. The ceremony emphasizes mindfulness and respect, allowing you to gain insight into Japanese culture and aesthetics. Take your time to savour the matcha, admire the tea utensils, and experience this peaceful ritual. After the tea ceremony, visit Kinkakuji, Kyoto's famous Golden Pavilion. This Zen temple, covered in gold leaf, is one of Japan's most photogenic landmarks, set amidst lush gardens and a reflective pond. Walk along the designated path to admire the pavilion from different angles, and take in the tranquil atmosphere. The surrounding gardens, designed in the traditional Japanese style, add to the temple's breathtaking beauty. This is a wonderful spot for photos and a peaceful stroll. Travel to the Arashiyama district, one of Kyoto's most scenic areas, famous for the iconic Togetsu-kyo Bridge and its serene bamboo forest. Start with a leisurely walk across Togetsu-kyo Bridge, which spans the Hozu River and offers lovely views of the surrounding hills. The bridge, with its natural backdrop, is particularly scenic, especially with seasonal colors from cherry blossoms in spring to autumn foliage. Next, continue to the nearby Bamboo Forest, where tall bamboo stalks create a calming and otherworldly atmosphere. Walk along the path, surrounded by the rustling sounds of bamboo, for a uniquely Kyoto experience. The light filtering through the bamboo creates beautiful photo opportunities, and the tranquil setting is perfect for slowing down and appreciating nature. After Lunch, Head back to Osaka. Evening Free time for Shopping - Sannomiya Center Gai and other shopping areas. Indian Dinner and Overnight in Osaka.
